

Outstanding Alumni: Mrs. Sharon Smith McClellan '82

The Donoho School held its annual Founders Day program on October 25. Peg Caffey Tyler, class of 1969 and president of the Donoho Alumni Association, presented The Outstanding Alumni Awards for 1999-2000.

Outstanding Alumna is Sharon Smith McClellan. After graduating from Donoho in 1982, she attended Randolph Macon Women's College. She received her bachelor's degree in 1986. For the past 13 years she has been a licensed stock broker, the past seven years with Fidelity Investments in Boston and Atlanta. She is married to David McClellan, also a stockbroker of Atlanta, and they have one son, Cameron. She is the daughter of Jan Smith and the late Kent M. Smith of Oxford.

From article when inducted in 1999